This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

This General Description of the World contains a statement as to the foundation of New-Amsterdam. There are copies on thick large paper, with the maps and plates exquisitely executed in colors and gold; very rare in this state. Vol. III., pp. 320–480, gives a description of America, with fifteen maps and a view of Mexico. This book is one of paramount merit. Created by the successive labors of eminent men of three different countries, it forms a most admirable resumé of the geographical science at the end of the seventeenth and at the beginning of the eighteenth century. See G. Asher's "Essay on New-Netherland," pp. 27–28.

Gives very extended and very exact details of the customs, manners, and religion of the savages of America, though principally of the Indians of Canada. Charlevoix says, "We have nothing so exact upon the subject of which he treats. His parallel of ancient nations with the American Indians is very ingenious, and exhibits as great familiarity with the nations of antiquity in the old world, as with the aborigines of the new." See "Biographie Universelle."

The traits of the savages are doubtless fairly illustrated, but the work was used by the author as a medium to proclaim his deistical theories, and is of no historical importance. See "Hist. Mag.," I. 280; II. 208. In some copies the title reads as below:

LA HONTAN. Dialogues De Monsieur le Baron de La Hontan Et d'un Sauvage, Dans l'Amerique. Contenant une description exacte des mœurs & des coutumes de ces Peuples Sauvages. Avec les Voyages du même en Portugal & en Danemarc, dans lesquels ou trouve des particularitez très curieuses, & qu'on n'avoit point encore remarquées. Le tout enrichi de Cartes & de Figures. A Amsterdam, Chez la Veuve de Boeteman ... M.DCCIV. 12mo, pp. (16), 222. 4 Plates and Map. 38634

The "Dialogues" end at page 103.

LA HONTAN. Nouveaux Voyages de Mr. Le Baron de Lahontan, dans l'Amerique Septentrionale, Qui contiennent une Rélation des différens Peuples qui y habitent; la nature de leur Gouvernement; leur Commerce, leurs Coutumes, leur Religion, & leur maniére de faire la Guerre. L'intérêt des François & des Anglois dans le Commerce qu'ils font avec ces Nations; l'avantage que l'Angleterre peut retirer dans ce Païs, étant en Guerre avec la France. Le tout enrichi de Cartes & de Figures. Tome Premier. A la Haye, Chez les Fréres l'Honoré, ... M.DCCIII. 12mo, pp. (22), 279. 15 Maps and Plates. BA. 38635

Mr. Muller says, there are two issues of this work, one has a plate of a sphere, the other a motto, "Honoratus," etc., on the title-page. We have one, sub visu, with both these features. Some copies have a sheet inserted—"L'Autheur au Lecteur, A Londres ce 26 Novembre. V. Stile.—12 pp., nearly three of which are errata, and the author does not spare his publisher. This matter is recast as the preface to the "Suite" or Vol. III., and this sheet must have appeared before the "Suite." The title to Vol. II. reads:

LA HONTAN. Memoires de l'Amerique Septentrionale, ou la suite des Voyages de Mr. Le Baron de Lahontan. Qui contiennent la Description d'une grande étenduë de Païs de ce Continent, l'intérêt des François & des Anglois, leurs Commerces, leurs Navigations, les Mœurs & les Coutumes des Sauvages, &c. Avec un petit Dictionaire de la Langue du Païs. Le tout enrichi de Cartes & de Figures. Tome Seconde. A La Haye, Chez les Fréres l'Honoré, ... M.DCCIII. 12mo, pp. 220, Table, (16). Map and 13 Plates. B., BA. 38636

See Nos. 38641–42, infra, for the second edition. The third volume, really by Nicolas Gueudeville, is entitled:

LA HONTAN. Supplement aux Voyages du Baron La Hontan, ou l'on trouve des dialogues curieux entre l'auteur et un sauvage de bons sens qui à voyagé. L'on y voit aussi plusieurs observations faites par le même auteur, dans ses voyages en Portugal, en Espagne, en Hollande, et en Danemarc, &c. Avec Figures. A La Haye, Chez les Fréres l'Honoré ... M.DCCIII. 12mo, pp. (14), 332. 4 Plates, 2 Maps. B. 38637

These three preceding numbers are the titles of the original edition of the work, which, in fact, consists of three volumes; our Nos. 38638–40, infra, describe other editions. Much of La Hontan's matter is evidently drawn from authentic sources, but his pretended discovery of Long River is wholly fictitious. The work has not received the amount of credit to which it is really entitled, although written by a man of more than ordinary learning and intelligence. Had he written no other work than the "New Voyages," it is probable that it would have experienced no lack of esteem, but his Relations, even when scrupulously exact, have felt the influence of the skepticism which he infused into his subsequent work. See "Biographie Universelle," Charlevoix, and Faribault, No. 357. In enumerating the succeeding editions I do it with some diffidence, for there are some variations which are not very clear; for example, in the edition of 1742, the "Suite" reads as Vol. II., and the "Memoires" as Vol. III. Some editions include the "Dialogues," others do not. To be quite sure about these details, one ought to have them all under the eye at the same time, and that has not been possible. Dr. Shea thinks there were editions in 1709 and 1731.

LA HONTAN. Nouveaux Voyages ... dans l'Amerique Septentrionale ... . A La Haye, Chez les Fréres l'Honoré. 1703. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. (24), 279; 220, (17). 25 Maps and Plates.

There is another edition, same title, date, and publisher, with 11 p. l. only. Although this bears the same imprint, a comparison shows them to be different editions. The text of the latter is, page for page, like that of the former; the type, however, is smaller, and all the capitals and ornaments are different; the epistle, prologue, and contents differ. The engravings in the latter are very inferior, and were evidently got up expressly for this edition, which is probably spurious. The Maps and Plates are reversed.

LA HONTAN. Nouveaux Voyages ... dans l'Amerique Septentrionale ... . A La Haye, Chez les Fréres l'Honoré. 1704. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. (16), 280; 222, (18). 25 Maps and Plates. + [Ibid.] 1709. + Amsterdam, l'Honoré. 1728. 2 vols., 12mo.

LA HONTAN. Nouveaux Voyages ... dans l'Amerique Septentrionale ... . La Haye, Chez les Fréres l'Honoré. MDCCXXXI. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. (8), 188, (4); (4), 220. 14 Plates and Maps.

LA HONTAN. Voyages du Baron de La Hontan dans l'Amerique Septentrionale, Qui contiennent une Rélation des différens Peuples qui y habitent; la nature de leur Gouvernement; leur Commerce, leurs Coûtumes, leur Religion, & leur maniére de faire la Guerre: L'Intérêt des François & des Anglois dans le Commerce qu'ils font avec ces Nations; l'avantage que l'Angleterre peut retirer de ce Païs, étant en Guerre avec la France. Le tout enrichi de Cartes & de Figures. Tome Premier, Seconde Edition, revuë, corrigée & augmentée. A Amsterdam, Chez François l'Honoré, ... MDCCV. 12mo, pp. (20), 376. 2 Maps, 11 Plates. + A La Haye, Chez Jonas l'Honoré. MDCCV. 12mo, pp. (20), 376. 2 Maps, 11 Plates. + A La Haye, Charles Delo. MDCCVI. 12mo, pp. (22), 376. 13 Maps and Plates. + A Amsterdam, Chez François l'Honoré. MDCCXXI. 12mo. Maps and Plates. + [Ibid.] M.DCC.XXVIII. 12mo, pp. (16), 408. 13 Maps and Plates. BA. + [Ibid.] MDCCXXXXI. 12mo, (8), 188, (4). Maps and Plates. C. 38641

Other editions, 1707 and 1715. Some copies of l'Honoré's edition have a preface of sixteen pages. After noticing the censure of the style it says: "All the Letters have been almost recast, and it is believed that the style will appear more pure, concise and simple, and with a little more finesse in the wit. ... There has been no scruple in probability where it lacked ... The best of the 'Dialogues' have been taken, and they have been adapted to the new style of the Voyages." The alteration is mainly in the "Dialogues" which are rewritten; the Voyages to Portugal and Denmark are omitted, and the whole work is thus brought into two volumes. Vol. II. has the following title:

LA HONTAN. Memoires de l'Amerique Septentrionale, ou la suite des Voyages de Mr. Le Baron de La Hontan: Qui contiennant la Description d'une grande étenduë de Païs de ce Continent, l'intérêt des François & des Anglois, leurs Commerces, leurs Navigations, les Mœurs & les Coutumes des Sauvages, &c. Avec un petit Dictionaire de la Langue du Païs. Le tout enrichi de Cartes & de Figures. Tome Seconde. Seconde Edition, augmentée des Conversations de l'Auteur avec un Sauvage distingué. A Amsterdam, Chez Francois l'Honoré & Compagnie. MDCCV. 12mo, pp. (2), 5–376, Table, 2. Map, 9 Plates. + A La Haye, Chez Jonas l'Honoré. MDCCV. 12mo, pp. (2), 5–336, Table, 2. Map, 9 Plates. + A La Haye, Charles Delo. MDCCVI. 12mo, pp. 3–336, (2). 14 Maps and Plates. + A Amsterdam, Chez François l'Honoré. MDCCXXI. 12mo. Maps and Plates. + [Ibid.] M.DCC.XXVIII. 12mo, pp. (2), 238. 9 Maps and Plates. BA. + [Ibid.] MDCCXXXXI. 12mo, pp. (4), 220. Maps and Plates.

Other editions, 1707 and 1715. The difference in the number of plates is really in favor of the edition of 1705, as that has a small Carte générale, which is not in the second. The latter have a fresh frontispiece and a figure of a sphere in addition. The augmentations are merely imaginary dialogues between the author and an Indian chief, in which questions of high morality and political economy are discussed. The third or supplementary volume, issued by another printer, bears the following title:

LA HONTAN. Suite Du Voyage, De l'Amerique, Ou Dialogues De Monsieur le Baron de La Hontan Et d'un Sauvage, Dans l'Amerique. Contenant une description exacte des mœurs & des coutumes de ces Peuples Sauvages. Avec les Voiages du même en Portugal & en Danemarc, ... Le tout enrichi de Cartes & de Figures. A Amsterdam, Chez la Veuve de Boeteman ... M. DCCIV. 12mo, pp. (16), 222. 6 Maps and Plates. + [Ibid.] M.DCC.XXVIII. 12mo, pp. (12), 257. 6 Maps and Plates. BA.

This is by Nicolas Gueudeville. See our Vol. VII., No. 29142, where the title is slightly incorrect.

LA HONTAN. New Voyages to North-America. Containing An Account of the several Nations of that vast Continent; their Customs, Commerce, and Way of Navigation upon the Lakes and Rivers; the several Attempts of the English and French to dispossess one another; with the Reasons of the Miscarriage of the former; and the various Adventures between the French, and the Iroquese Confederates of England, from 1683 to 1694. A Geographical Description of Canada, and a Natural History of the Country, with Remarks upon their Government, and the Interest of the English and French in their Commerce. Also a Dialogue between the Author and a General of the Savages, giving a full View of the Religion and strange Opinions of those People: With an Account of the Author's Retreat to Portugal and Denmark, and his Remarks on those Courts. To which is added, A Dictionary of the Algonkine Language, which is generally spoke in North-America. Illustrated with Twenty Three Mapps and Cutts. Written in French By the Baron Lahontan, Lord Lievtenant of the French Colony at Placentia in Newfoundland, now in England. Done into English. ... A great part of which never Printed in the Original. London: ... H. Bonwicke ... 1703. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. (24), 280; 302, (13). Maps and Plates. 38644

The engravings are by H. Moll: including the frontispiece to Vol. II. there are twenty-four in number, viz.: thirteen in Vol. I., and eleven in Vol. II. That designed for Vol. I., p. 89, is generally to be found in Vol. II., p. 89. The map of Newfoundland, added by the author to this edition, is the twenty-fourth. In the preface he says the plates of the Holland edition were miserably done. This edition was published under his own eye. "La Hontan was a freethinker, and consequently had but little respect for the clergy; it is not therefore to be wondered at that he was persecuted in France, and his work traduced. The character given of the author and of the work by the Jesuits has been adopted by later writers, who ought to have known better. A writer in the 'North American Review' observes, that the Baron seems to have been an ardent and enterprising character, with more wit than discretion, but that his accounts bear every mark of authenticity, and are quite confirmed by cotemporary as well as subsequent writers on the same country."—RICH, I. 4. Mr. Rich's remarks need a little qualification—Charlevoix is the only Jesuit who discusses La Hontan.

Some copies have the imprint, London: J. and J. Bonwicke, others, J. Osborn. It is the same as the edition of 1703. Vol. II. has the following title:

LA HONTAN. New Voyages to North-America. Giving a full Account of the Customs, Commerce, Religion, and strange Opinions of the Savages of that Country. With Political Remarks upon the Courts of Portugal and Denmark, and the Present State of the Commerce of those Countries. The Second Edition. Written By the Baron Lahontan, Lord-Lieutenant of the French Colony at Placentia in Newfoundland: Now in England. London: John Brindley. M,DCC,XXXV. 8vo, pp. 304. 10 Plates.

Some copies have the imprint, London: J. Walthoe. 1735. Murray remarks "Becoming intimate with the Indians, La Hontan formed the plan of an expedition to the eastern regions beyond the Mississippi, and was the first person to make known, by communication from the Indians, the existence of the Rocky Mountains, the Columbia River, and the Ocean or 'Great Salt Lake.'" Dr. J. G. Shea says this is all fictitious. It was translated under the inspection of the author, from the French original. The vocabulary is reprinted on pp. 214–219 in Hadr. Relandi's "Dissertationes Miscellaneæ." Trajecti ad Rhenum. 1706–7. 8vo. See also Pinkerton's "Voyages," Vol. XIII.

The narrative of the enterprising but ill-fated Pérouse, is full of interest in all portions, but his relations of the peculiarities he observed in the natives of the northwest coast of North America, are especially valuable. The mysterious fate of this distinguished navigator has never been satisfactorily cleared up. The above account was transmitted from Botany Bay, after leaving this place the expedition was never heard of again.

It is one of the most important collections of documents relating to the politics of the La Plata States. The motto imprinted on every number—"Viva la Confederacion Argentina! Mueran las Salvajes asquerosos unitarios. Muera el loco traidor Salvaje unitaris Urquiza!"—will sufficiently characterize the tendency of the publication. It was the official organ and literary standard-bearer of the notorious Dictator Rosas, and contains all his proclamations and manifestos. The observations of this distinguished author, made during a three years residence, extend to the political constitution of the country, the manners, etc., of the inhabitants, its physical state and natural history. "The translator appears to have executed his task faithfully, and to be well acquainted with the country described. His notes frequently increase the information, and sometimes correct the errors of the original. A copy of this work which formerly belonged to the late Robert Barclay, has the following note, apparently in his own handwriting: 'These travels are to be read throughout under the general belief of their being composed to please the French nation, with a view to the author's return from exile. Many of his statements, etc., are much questioned; and, above all, that degree of attachment he represents to exist among the Americans to France.'"—Rich, I. 415. See also Field's "Essay," No. 930, "M. Except the "Relaçam," our No. 24895, this is perhaps the rarest book relating to Florida; unless the first edition of Cabeça de Vaca may be reckoned as equally rare. Its accounts of the Indians in Florida are highly interesting, and its relation of the atrocities and massacre of the French by Menendez are appalling. Tross priced an uncut copy at 1,200 francs. The following reprint is also scarce:

LAUDONNIÈRE. L'Histoire Notable de la Floride situee es Indes Occidentales Contenant les trois voyages faits en icelle par certains Capitaines et Pilotes françois, descrits par le capitaine Laudonnière, qui y a commandé l'espace d'un an trois moys: á laquelle a esté adjousté un quatriesme voyage fait par le capitaine Gourgues. Of this reprint one hundred copies only were issued.

LAUDONNIÈRE. This translation of one of the most interesting of all the early volumes of travel, contains the voyages of Laudonniere, Ribault, and Gorgues, who visited Florida in 1561–67, to which Hakluyt has added much interesting matter. It is the rarest of Hakluyt's publications; the only copy in the United States is in the Lenox Library. See also Faribault, No. 39; French's "Hist. Lowndes quotes an edition, Dublin, 1738, which is doubtless intended for Brickell's plagiarism from Lawson. The reader will not fail to discover that, except the one reprinted at Raleigh, these editions are, in fact, all alike; the changes in the title-pages are simply those made by the then publishers. It was first issued as a part of Stevens' "Collection of Voyages." It is "the relation of a man of acute habits of observation, some intelligence, and entire veracity. ... Lawson was a land surveyor in the employment of the government, and was the unhappy cause of the exile of the Tuscarora tribe to New York, and its consequent incorporation into the Iroquois Confederacy, by which its name was changed to the Six Nations."—FIELD. A pleasant gossiping book, evidencing considerable acquaintance with the subjects described. It contains a description of the manners and customs of the Iroquois, the Hurons, the Algonquins, and other Indian tribes, derived from the author's personal experiences; although the style in which the work is written is rather that of a romance than of a true narrative. "This work is highly praised by La Richarderie (in his "Bib. des Voyages," Vol. VI.), upon whose judgment, however, very little reliance can be placed."—RICH.

"An edition unknown to bibliographers. Brunet describes an edition of the same year, and by the same printer, under Ribaut, and again under Le Challeux, who, in reality, was the writer of the work. Brunet says: 'Après le titre se lit une Epistre de l'auteur à un sien amy, signée M. le Challeux;' and that at page 9 commences 'La Floride,' etc., p. 56. Chauveton, in his Latin version of Benzoni, first printed in Geneva in 1578, 8vo, has given at the end of the volume a Latin translation of the relation of Le Challeux; and the original French text is reprinted at the end of Chauveton's French version of Benzoni, Geneva, 1579, 8vo. De Bry in the sixth part of the 'Grands Voyages,' 2d appendix, 'Expeditio in Floridam,' and at the end of Chap. I. and in Chap. II., pages 87 et seq., has given an exact copy of Chauveton's Latin version of this little tract of Le Challeux."—J. R. Bartlett. The following is a translation:

This first edition is of much rarity and value. For an account of the work and its author, see Hutchinson's "Hist. of Mass. Bay," I. 451. It was reproduced with a new title-page only as:

[LECHFORD.] New-Englands Advice to Old-England, or, Some Observations upon New-Englands Government, compared with the Ancient Government of Old-England: Not unfitting to be taken into serious consideration in these miserable distracted times. LE CLERCQ (C.) Dictionnaire caraïbe-français, par le Père Leclercq. Rennes. 1665. 39648

LE CLERCQ. Nouvelle | Relation | de la | Gaspesie, | qui contient | Les Mœurs & la Religion des Sau- | vages Gaspesiens Porte-Croix, | adorateurs du Soleil, & d'autres | Peuples de l'Amerique Septen- | trionale, dite le Canada. | Dedie'e à Madame la | Princesse d'Epinoy, | Par le Pere Chrestien Le Clercq, Missionnaire Recollet de la Province de | Saint Antoine de Pade en Artois, & | Gardien du Convent de Lens. | A Paris, | Chez Amable Auroy, ruë Saint | Jacques, à l'Image S. Jerôme, attenant | la Fontaine S. Severin. | M.DC.XCI. | Avec Privilege du Roy. | 12mo, pp. (28), 572. BA., C. 39649

Important for its information relative to Northeastern Canada and the Province of New Brunswick. It contains a remarkable record of the labors of converting the Gaspé Indians. He not only records the results of his own missionary life among the savages inhabiting the shores of the St. Lawrence, but he has left us an account of their peculiar traits of character, religious rites, and mode of life, before these had been modified by contact with civilisation. See Boucher de la Richarderie, VI. 21, Faribault, p. 82, Field's "Essay," No. 903, and [Harrisse's] "Notes," No. 170.

Severin à l'Image* | Saint Jerôme. | M.DC.XCI. |

Avec Privilege du Roy.| 2 vols., 12mo, pp. (28), 559; 458 [for 454], (8), Catalogue, (20). 39650

An extremely rare work. Soon after its publication it was suppressed by the French Government, and very few copies were circulated. It is peculiarly valuable as containing the first original account of the discoveries of La Salle by two missionaries who accompanied him. From this book also Hennepin drew the account of his pretended discovery of the Mississippi River. "Cet ouvrage que celui de Charlevoix sur le même sujet avait fait oublier, est exact et assez bien écrit. On le recherche beaucoup au Canada, et, comme il est peu commun."—BRUNET. See [Harrisse's] "Notes," No. 169. The work was reproduced in 1692, without the author's name, as:

[LE CLERCQ.] Histoire des Colonies Françaises et les fameuses découvertes ... de la Louisiane, Sous la conduite du feu M. de la Salle. Paris et Lyon, Chez Thomas Amaury. 1692. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. 559; 458. 39651

This is identical with the former edition, except that the dedication to Count Frontenac is omitted. Charlevoix asserts that Frontenac was, in fact, the author of a large part of the work. The student of Canadian history will find it difficult to determine as to the relative credence to be given to Le Clercq and Charlevoix; he should read both and strike a balance, and in order to do so intelligently he will do well to consult Dr. Shea's translation of Charlevoix, from which T. W. Field has drawn largely in his "Essay." See also [Harrisse's] "Notes," No. 169. Joutel and Hennepin may also be consulted.

A very rare book; Griswold's copy sold for $315. Lederer appears to have been regarded by the Virginians with no little jealousy, but, in the face of some misgivings, he seems to have won the good opinions of his patron and translator, Sir W. Talbot, who states that he found him to be "a modest ingenious person, and a pretty scholar." It is dedicated to Anthony Lord Ashley, Baron Ashley of Wimborn St. Giles, etc., one of the proprietors of Carolina. See Pennington's "New Albion," and Rich's Catalogue, No. 358. refuted. Philadelphia: Printed by Francis Bailey. M.DCC.LXXX. Sm. 4to, pp. 74. BA., H. 39700

A tract not only of great rarity but of much historical interest; which, together with "Deane's Address," and the "Paris Papers," afford material for an instructive and interesting episode in the history of the Revolution, in which Franklin, Jonathan Williams, Paul Jones, and Deane, may, possibly, be brought to occupy the same niche.

LEE. Observations on Certain Commercial Transactions in France, laid before Congress. By Arthur Lee, Esquire. Philadelphia: Printed by F. Bailey. M,DCC,LXXX. 4to, pp. 51. H.

Addressed to the Earl of Hillsborough, Sir Francis Bernard, and the people of England. "To be continued" says the writer; but the continuation did not appear. "Although there is something illiberal in the manner, and malignant in the spirit, of this American Junius, yet there are in his letters many animadversions on the conduct of administration, particularly with respect to the colonies, which are worthy of public attention and enquiry."—Monthly Review.

J.C.B. + New York: J. Anderson. 1775. 8vo. 39708

The first letter is dated Philadelphia, June 6, 1775, and is addressed to General Burgoyne on his arrival at Boston. Lee "sincerely laments the infatuation of the times when men of such a stamp as Mr. Burgoyne and Mr. Howe can be seduced into so impious and nefarious a service, by the artifice of a wicked, and insiduous court and cabinet." Both writers discuss the right of the British Government to tax the colonies.

The first piece printed in Pennsylvania. It was reprinted about 1860. Bradford continued to print this almanac yearly, with varying titles and sizes. It is, perhaps, unnecessary to add, they are all rare. On Bradford's removal to New York, the title was changed as below:

Also: Captain Leisler's Case.—Reasons for the Reversal of Leisler's Attainder.—Answer to the Reasons.—Reasons against the Reversing the Attainder of Captain Jacob Leisler. 1688–90. Four very curious papers relating to New York. On the arrival of the news of the landing of the Prince of Orange in England, Captain Nicholson, the Deputy Governor of New England and New York, in the absence of the Governor, Sir Edmond Andros, refused to declare for the Prince; upon which the military seized the fort, and the Assembly chose Capt. Leisler captain of the fort and commander-in-chief, and by letter from the Earl of Nottingham, he was appointed Deputy Governor, which position he held for thirteen months. Upon the arrival of Captain Ingoldsby, the new Governor, he refused to surrender until the arrival of Col. Slaughter, when he was tried and executed. The above papers detail the whole affair; but, whether printed or manuscript I am not certain. They are described in No. 1703, of one of Thomas Thorpe's Catalogues.

A complete set of these "Relations" is of the highest rarity; they are all, however, reprinted in the "Relations des Jésuites," Quebec. 1858. 3 vols., imp. 8vo. The "Relations of the Jesuits" as to their Canada mission, including Biard's, 1616, and Lallemant's, 1627, with one in Latin, includes fifty-five volumes, nine being contemporaneous reprints. Intended to excite interest in their missionary work, these volumes have proved of high historical value as accounts of Indian tribes, their manners, language, etc., as well as records of events in the colony. Sulpitian authors state that the publication after 1672 was prevented by the French Government, but Harrisse could not find in the archives the documents cited by Faillon. Subsequent "Relations," prepared for publication after 1672, have been printed by James Lenox, J. G. Shea, and F. Felix Martin. To form a complete collection of the "Relations" of the Jesuit missionaries in Canada, on the borders, and in the great North West, from about 1630 to 1680, has been the laudable ambition of many American collectors, but few, if any, have succeeded. A perfect set is the pons asinorum of the American collector. The historical and geographical importance of these volumes cannot well be overstated. See [Harrisse's] "Notes," Nos. 49, 55, 56, 60, 63, 70, 74, 75, 110, 117.

LEON. Epitome | de la | Biblioteca | Oriental i Occidental, Nautica | i Geografica. | ... | Por el Licenciado Antonio de Leon | Relator del Supremo i Real | Consejo de las Indias. | Con Priuilegio. | En Madrid, Por Iuan Gonzalez. | Año de M.DCXXIX. | 4to, Engraved Title, pp. (86), 186, Appendice, xii, Colophon, 1 l.

The author of this work, probably the first which contains a catalogue of books on America, afterwards took the surname of Pinelo. See Trübner's "Bibliographical Guide to American Literature," p. viii, also [Harrisse's] "Bib. Am. Vet." The following enlarged edition by Barcia is so clumsily thrown together that it is quite a relief to refer from it to this neat and well-arranged little manual.

LEON. Epitome de la Bibliotheca Oriental, y Occidental, Nautica, y Geografica, de Don Antonio de Leon Pinelo, del Consejo de Su Mag. en la Casa de la Contratacion de Sevilla, y Coronista maior de las Indias, Añadido, y enmendado nuevamente, en que se contienen los Escritores de las Indias Orientales, y Occidentales, y Reinos convecinos China, Tartaria, Japon, Persia, Armenia, Etiopia, y otros partes. ... En Madrid, Por Francisco Martinez Abad. MDCCXXXVII–VIII. 3 vols., folio, pp. (40), 561, (4), Catalogo, (94), (8); (2), 561–1192; (2), 1200–1729, Catalogo, 133. 40053

Notwithstanding the confusion and prolixity of this work, the notices it contains are very interesting, and their critical revision would be a useful and meritorious undertaking. Rich remarks that it is "The most complete general bibliography of geographical works, travels, missionary reports, etc. The second volume contains the works relating to America, and its greatest value consists in the notices it gives of the Spanish manuscripts on the subjects, most of which are still existing in Spain." The author has had the bad taste, however, to tranalate all the titles into Spanish. See also Charlevoix, Vol. I., [Harrisse's] "Bib. Am. Vet.," and Trübner's "Bibliographical Guide to American Literature," p. ix.

Noticia muy necesaria para la perfecta inteligencia de la segunda piedra: á que se añaden otras curiosas é instructivas sobre la Mitología de los Mexicanos, sobre su Astronomía, y sobre los ritos y ceremonias que acostumbrahan en tiempo de su Gentilidad. Por Don Antonio de Leon y Gama.

México. En la Imprenta de Don Felipe de Zuñiga y Ontiveros Año de M. DCC. XCII. 4to, pp. (6), 116, (2). 3 Plates. c. 40059

An historical and chronological account of the carved stones discovered in 1790, upon removing the pavement on the great plaza in the city of Mexico. These two stones, one an idol, and the other the Aztec calendar, were buried by the Mexicans on the approach of the Spaniards in 1521, and remained within eighteen inches of the surface for two hundred and seventy years. The Calendario weighs about fifty tons and has sculptured upon it the symbols of their astronomical system, which had previously been found described in manuscripts. The other stone was a colossal idol. This work is accompanied by an essay upon the astronomical system of the ancient Mexicans, and to the student of Mexican archæology will be especially interesting. Prescott eulogizes the author, but Don José Antonio Alzate y Ramirez, in the "Gazeta de Literatura" of Mexico, of the 15th and 31st July, 1792, criticises this work rather severely, denying the conclusions drawn by Sr. Gama from the appearance of these curious antiquities.

[LEONARD (Daniel).] Massachusettensis. [Boston. 1775.] 8vo, pp. 118. 40097

These political essays, in the form of seventeen letters, first appeared anonymously in the Boston newspapers. They were then supposed to be from the pen of Jonathan Sewall, Attorney-General of the Province of Massachusetts. They took the side of the government against the colonies, and are written with great ingenuity. Tudor, in his "Life of Otis," Chap. XXIX., pp. 170, 203, characterizes them as "The most able papers on the Government side during the dispute." John Adams wrote, "On my return from Congress in November, 1774, I found the Massachusetts Gazette teeming with political speculations, and Massachusettensis shining like to the moon among the lesser stars. I instantly knew him to be my friend Sewall, and was told he excited great exultation among the Tories, and many gloomy apprehensions among the Whigs." Adams wrote a series of articles in reply under the signature of "Novanglus," see our Vol. I., Nos. 243, 244, and 263, also "Adams' Works," II. 405, IV. 410, "N. A. Rev.," IX. 376, and for September, 1819, p. 409, "M. Rev.," LIV. 410, and Rich's "Bib. Amer.," I. 232. Trumbull, in his "McFingall," paid his respects to the author without gloves, as one who

"Scrawled every moment he could spare
From cards, and barber, and the fair."

Eight of the seventeen letters were reprinted in New York as:

[LEONARD.] The Present Political State of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay in General, and the Town of Boston, in Particular, Exhibiting the Rise and Progress of the disordered State of that Country, in a Series of Letters, published weekly, at Boston, and now first collected. By a Native of New-England. New-York: ... James Rivington. MDCCLXXV. 8vo, pp. 86.

Closes thus: "In the Press, and shortly will be published a Continuation of this Work"—this continuation I have not seen. Rivington reissued this tract, naming "Massachusettensis" as the author, with a second title-page as below:

[LEONARD.] The Origin of the American Contest with Great-Britain, or, The present political State of the Massachusetts-Bay in general, and The Town of Boston in particular. Exhibiting the Rise and Progress of the disordered State of that Country, in a series of weekly Essays, published at Boston, under the Signature of Massachusettensis, A Native of New-England. New-York: Printed by James Rivington. 1775. 8vo, pp. (2), 86.

All the letters were reprinted in England with the following title:

[LEONARD.] Massachusettensis: Or a Series of Letters containing a faithful state of many important and striking facts, which laid the foundation of the present Troubles in the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay; interspersed with Animadversions and Reflections, originally Addressed to the People of that Province, and worthy the Consideration of the True Patriots of this Country. Probably unique. The English original of this highly rare and curious tract is as yet undiscovered. It purports to be an account of a vision which appeared to Owen Lloyd, who was living in Virginia in 1643, and who had there lost his fortune. It concludes with an epistle to John Rogers, one of the Fifth-monarchy men, dated from the Flying Post, in White Friars, March 7, 1654.

Important as showing the French claims to the Southern territory now occupied by several states, but claimed also by the English under the name of "Carolana." The author resided in Louisiana fifteen years, and it is from his relation that most of the details of the life of the Natchez and other Mississippi tribes of Indians have been derived. Later historians have availed themselves of his materials. The plates are barbarous; indeeed, the "Monthly Review," XIX. 296, remarks, "they remind one of the cuts in the old 'Hortus Sanitatis.' The author appears to have been a very sensible and a very worthy man, but with very little talent as a writer. His stile is unequal and diffuse, and his work wants method." See also Boucher de la Richarderie's "Bib. des Voyages," Vol. VII., Faribault's Catalogue, p. 84, and Leclerc's Catalogue, No. 877.

The long preface is the work of the English editor, who informs us that he "has left out many things that appeared to be trifling, and abridged some parts of it." It will also be perceived, on comparison of the titles, that he has even constructed one for the work to suit himself. See Field's "Essay," and "M. Rev.," XXIX. 444. Brunet says there is another Latin translation under the title "De Sacro-Cæsaris quod Sancerrum vocant obsidione, fame, ditione historia," Heidelbergae, 1576, 8vo. The folded plate, page 170, represents the battle of the Tououpinambaults with the Margaiats. The author was a Protestant minister who went out to Brazil to establish a colony of Huguenots, under the protection of Admiral Coligny; but, the scheme not succeeding, he returned to France and published the work. This Latin version is, in reality, more valuable than the original, as it contains passages that were suppressed in the French. Among other things, the author gives musical notes to show the intonation of the Caraibs, etc., a fact totally unknown to Fétis. Even the preface is most interesting, as in it is to be found the letter written to Calvin by Villegagnon, so celebrated for deceiving the English squadron, by unexpectedly circumnavigating Scotland and conveying from its west coast Mary, Queen of Scotland, safely into Brittany. In chapter xx. is a dialogue in Brazilian and Latin. The entire work bears internal evidence of truth, and such only as an eye-witness of the events could have composed. One of its objects was to introduce the Protestant faith into South America, especially among the Aborigines. Brunet remarks, "Edition recherchée plus rare que l'original français." Another version also forms pp. 137–296 of Bry's "Voyages," Part III. See also Benzoni (H.)

"This is, without question, the scarcest of all editions of Lery. It is the only Dutch translation, and so rare, even in Holland, that I have only met with two copies and never heard of another nor found it cited; it has remained unknown to Brunet, Rich, Trömel, Stevens," etc.—MULLER. The plates are copied from those of the French original. Chapter XX., page 20, contains the dialogues in Brazilian and Dutch. I have met with not less than two foreign catalogues which quote a Dutch translation, Amsterdam: Cornelis Claesz. 1596. 4to. Another Dutch version is included in Aa's "Collection," in folio and 8vo. See Tiele, p. 291.

Contains an account of his residence among the Indians of North America, and his being sold as a slave in New England, and is said by the author to be a veritable narra-

In some copies of this and the following edition all the forty-eight unnumbered pages precede the text. We are unable to determine positively as to the number of maps. The author refers to three only in the text, but copies have been found with four maps, the last being that of Port Royal.

This edition differs from the former only in the matter of the errata, which in this issue is corrected. As to the number of maps, see our note to No. 40170. Leclerc's Catalogue, No. 887, cites "La troisième édition est de 1617, on croit cependant que sauf le titre, la nôtre est la même." We have never met with a copy with this date and infer that it is the second edition with a new title-page only. The following is a reprint:

LESCARBOT. Histoire de la Nouvelle-France par Marc Lescarbot suivie des Muses de la Nouvelle-France. Nouvelle Édition publiée par Edwin Tross avec quatre cartes géographiques. Paris: Librairie Tross. 1866. 3 vols., 8vo, pp. (12), xviii, (2), 287; (6), 291–586; (6), 591–851, (28), 83, (1). 4 Maps. B., BA. 40172

Of this elegant reprint some copies are on "papier de Hollande." It is difficult to understand why the publisher should have reproduced this second edition which is a mere reprint of the first. A reprint of the first would have been quite natural in a bibliographical sense; while a reprint of the third would have given us the author's latest words. Mr. Tross' sketch of the author's life is very unsatisfactory, and his bibliography of Lescarbot's works is unworthy of so well-informed a man as Mr. Tross was.

This edition differs from all the preceding; the arrangement is altered, and there are many additions; it may, therefore, be considered the best. All of these editions are usually followed by "Les Muses de la Nouvelle France," described below:

[LESCARBOT.] Les Muses|de la Novvelle|France.|A Monseigneur|le Chancellier.|...|A Paris|Chez Iean Millot, sur le

This is included in Mr. Tross' reprint of the "Histoire," and forty copies were issued separately; also six copies on Whatman's drawing paper. T. W. Field remarks, in language peculiar to himself, that this is sometimes found "ununited to the 'Histoire,'" on which we remark that we have never met with a copy of the "Histoire," in the original binding, in which it was not included.

This is a translation of the fourth and sixth books only. The author states in his preface that "The whole volume of the navigations of the French nation into the West Indies (comprised in three bookes) was brought to mee, to be translated by M. Richard Hakluyt, ... and by him this part was selected from the whole work, to the end, that comparing the goodnesse of the lands with that of Virginia," etc. "Which translation is but a part of a greater volume." The following is the same work with a new title-page:

First American edition. The only relation this book has to America consists in the fact that its publication created a litigation concerning the liberty of the press in America. The first edition was published in London in 1699. Mr. Checkley prefixed to this edition a preface of his own, consisting of twelve pages not in the following. Thomas, in his "History of Printing," Vol. II., p. 428, remarks, "Whether he [Checkley] was a regular bookseller or not, I am not prepared to say; I have seen no book printed for him in America," which clearly indicates the scarcity of the book over fifty years ago. It was reprinted with the following title:

[LESLIE.] A Short and Easie Method with the Deists. Wherein the Certainty of the Christian Religion Is demonstrated, by infallible Proof from Four Rules, which are incompatible to any Imposture that ever yet has been, or that can possibly be. In a Letter to a Friend. The Eighth Edition. London: Printed by J. Applebee, and Sold by John Checkley, at the Sign of the Crown and Blue-Gate, over against the West-End of the Town-House in Boston. 1723. 8vo, pp. 132. B., BA., H. 40192

In its original binding this work is always followed by "The Speech of Mr. John Checkley" ... as described in our No. 12365, of which speech there is a second edition: London: J. Applebee. 1738. 8vo, pp. (2), 40, and "A Specimen of a True Dissenting Catechism upon Right True-Blue Dissenting Principles" ... 8vo, 1 l. Lettres Édifiantes et Curieuses, Écrites des Missions Étrangères par quelques Missionaires de la Compagnie de Jesus. Paris: Le Clerc. 1702–1776. 34 vols., 12mo. S. 40697

"A set comprising the first edition of each volume is of uncommon rarity. Brunet and Carayon give the date of the first volume of this famous collection as 1717, which is certainly an error. Father le Gobien, editor of the early volumes, died in 1708. The first volume is approved by the Provincial of the Society of Jesus in May, 1702, and by the King, Aug. 23, 1702; this corresponds with the title given by Charlevoix: 'Lettres de quelques Missionaires de la Compagnie de Jesus, écrite de la Chine et des Indes Orientales.' Paris. 1702. 12mo. Charlevoix adds, "Ce premier recueil fut suivi peu après d'un second, sous ce titre: 'Lettres Édifiantes et Curieuses écrites des Missions Étrangères par quelques Missionnaires de la Compagnie de Jesus.'" He says, moreover, that these two collections, reprinted in 1717, were the first of the collection of "Lettres Édifiantes et Curieuses." "The second volume was approved Oct. 30, 1702, and the third in 1703. The publication undoubtedly followed shortly after the date of approval. Volume VII. was approved Feb. 20, 1707, and published in that year; volume VIII., approved Nov. 30, 1707, was published in 1708. Volumes I., II., and III. were certainly in print before 1707, when an English translation of the three appeared in one volume; see 'Edifying and Curious Letters,' our No. 21853; and a volume in 1713, from which 'The Travels of Certain Learned Missioners,' London, 1714, was translated, described infra. The publication was continued till 1758, when volume XXVIII. appeared; then the troubles of the order in France arrested the work, and its absolute suppression by the parliament of Paris, Aug. 6, 1762, made any further publication by them impossible. As, however, many valuable letters had been collected and the work enjoyed a popularity, a new volume (XXIX.) appeared in 1773, the very year when Pope Clement XIV. suppressed the order. Another volume also appeared in 1773, two in 1774, and two in 1776; the last bearing on the title the name of the Abbé Patouillet, who, according to Feller, had edited volumes XXVII. and XXVIII." The foregoing note is furnished to me by Dr. J. G. Shea, than whom there is no better authority. There are evidently two or more editions of the early volumes. Of the great value of these "Lettres," as illustrating the early history and settlement, not only of Canada, but of Central New York, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin, it is unnecessary to speak. These "Lettres" were collected by the Fathers Le Gobien, Du Halde, Ingoult, De Neuville, and Patouillet. For the missions among the American Indians, Charlevoix refers to volumes X., XI., XII., XIII., XVII., XX., and XXIII.; see his notice in "Liste des Auteurs." See also Shea's "Charlevoix," Sabin's "American Bibliopolist," and a very full history of the "Lettres Édifiantes" in Backer's "Bibliothek de la Comp. de Jesus," octavo edition, Vol. II., appendice, and in the folio edition, 1857–60, Vol. III., cols. 1737–53, Backer gives in detail the contents of the edition of 1838; and in cols. 1753–1860, he gives the contents of the German version and extension of the "Lettres."

Volumes VI. to IX. inclusive, relate to America. J. R. Bartlett's Catalogue of J. C. Brown's Library gives a copious list of the contents of each volume. This edition is generally preferred to the original, because it has the advantage of being systematically arranged. Of the accuracy of those 'Lettres,' and the works of Du Halde and Gaubit, the author has often heard the late Sir G. Staunton speak in the highest terms."—CHARLES BUTLER.

Lettere Edificanti scritte dalle Missioni Straniere ... . Milano. 1825–29. 6 vols., 8vo. 40706

The following are English versions:

The | Travels | Of several | Learned Missioners | of the | Society of Jesus, | into Divers Parts | of the | Archipelago, | India, China, and America. | Containing a general Description of the most remarkable | Towns; with a particular Account of the Customs, | Manners and Religion of those several Nations, the | whole interspers'd with Philosophical Observations and | other curious Remarks. | Translated from the French Original publish'd at Paris | in the Year 1713. | London: | ... R. Gosling ... M DCC XIV. 8vo, pp. (16), 336, Index, (12), Books, (4). 2 Plates. P. 40707

This volume contains twenty-two letters, the nineteenth relating to the Moxos, in South America, the twentieth being Marest's Account of Affairs at Hudson's Bay, and the twenty-first, Extract of an Account of the Country of Accadie in North America, etc., written by a French gentleman, and sent to a Missioner of the Society of Jesus. Now Charlevoix, in his "Liste des Auteurs" (Shea's "Charlevoix," I. 88), mentions this letter of Marest as in the tenth volume of the "Lettres Édifiantes," printed at Paris by Jean Barbou. In some copies the collation is pp. (16), 333, (17). See also our Vol. IV., No. 21853, and Kip (W. J.), Vol. IX., No. 37949. Dr. Shea informs me that there is another series by Dr. Kip, Junior.

By Mr. Lockman. London: John Noon. 1743. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. 487; 508, (19). P. 40708

This is an excellent abridgment of the first ten volumes of the "Lettres Édifiantes;" it contains particulars of the Jesuit missions in Peru, by Ricolo and Nyel, Mexico, California, Hudson's Bay, Barrera's Abode among the Moxos and Chiriguanos of South America. Mr. Lockman proposed to have given the other fifteen which had then been published, but they never appeared.

This Work is illustrated with Maps and Sculptures, engraved by the best Masters. To which is now prefixed, An Account of the Spanish Settlements in America, with a general Index to the whole Work. The best edition. Also issued on large paper, rl. 8vo. Dr. Fothergill was a distinguished physician in London, of Quaker parentage and principles, who thrice visited America. Before Franklin left for America, in 1774, he held a conference with a distinguished nobleman and Dr. Fothergill for the purpose of agreeing upon some concillatory plan for the reconciliation of Great Britain and her American colonies. These gentlemen, although they held two conferences, were unable to agree upon a plan, when Dr. Franklin left. The propositions submitted at these conferences are given in this volume. See also Carver (J.) "Travels."

LEWIS. Message of the President of the United States communicating Discoveries made in Exploring the Missouri, Red River, and Washita, by Captains Lewis and Clark, Doctor Sibley, and Mr. Dunbar; with a Statistical Account of the Countries adjacent. Read in Congress February 19, 1806. City of Washington: A. & G. Way, Printers. 1806. 8vo, pp. 180, (8). Map. + New York: G. F. Hopkins. 1806. 8vo, pp. 178, and folded leaf. + New York: Hopkins & Seymour. 1806. 8vo, pp. 178. Folded Table. 40824

Another Washington edition, 1806, has pp. 171, (6). Between pages 24 and 25 are a few unnumbered pages consisting of tables. This "Message" forms the first published ccount of the explorations of Lewis and Clarke, and contains vocabularies of the Sioux and Dakota languages. See "M. Rev.," LXXVIII. The following is a reprint:

LEWIS. Discoveries made in Exploring the Missouri, Red River, and Washita, by Captains Lewis & Clark, Doctor Sibley and William Dunbar, Esq.; with a Statistical Account of the Countries adjacent. With an Appendix by Mr. Dunbar. Natchez: Printed by Andrew Marshal. 1806. 8vo, pp. 174.

It was reprinted in part in the "Political Cabinet," an appendix to the "Monthly Anthology," Boston, 1807, and afterwards collected under the title of "American State Papers," Boston, 1808, pp. 39–92.

LEWIS. Travels in the Interior Parts of America; communicating Discoveries made in exploring the Missouri, Red River and Washita, by Captains Lewis and Clark, Doctor Sibley, and Mr. Dunbar; with A Statistical Account of the Countries adjacent. As laid before the Senate, by the President of the United States. In February, 1806, and never before published in Great Britain. London: Richard Phillips. 1807. 8vo, pp. 116, and folded Table. 40826

Almost an exact copy of the "Message."

LEWIS. The Travels of Capts. Lewis & Clarke, from St. Louis, by way of the Missouri and Columbia Rivers, to the Pacific Ocean; performed in the years 1804, 1805, & 1806, by Order of the Government of the United States. Containing delineations of the Manners, Customs, Religion, &c. Of the Indians, compiled from Various Authentic Sources, and Original Documents, and a Summary of the Statistical View of the Indian Nations, from the Official Communications of Merriwether Lewis. Illustrated with a Map of the Country, inhabited by the Western Tribes of Indians. London: Longman, Hurst, Rees & Orme. 1809. 8vo, pp. ix, 309. Map. H. 40827

Almost a reproduction of the "Message," but Dr. Sibley's account of the Red River is omitted. It contains some documents not published in any other edition, including "Observations on the Voyage of William Dunbar and Dr. Hunter, extracted from their Journals." The article on the "Origin of the American Indian Population," pp. 211–237, is in fact a reprint from Carver's "Travels," Chap. L.

LEWIS. History of the Expedition under the Command of Captains Lewis and Clark, to the Sources of the Missouri, thence across the Rocky Mountains and down the River Columbia to the Pacific Ocean. Performed during the Years 1804–5–6. By Order of the Government of the United States. Prepared for the Press by Paul Allen, Esquire. Philadelphia: Bradford and Inskeep. 1814. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xxviii, 470; ix, 522. 3 Maps.

Best edition of this valuable work, which the "Critical Review" says, "Exhibits not only some valuable geographical notices, but very copious and amusing details respecting the manners, habits, and diversions of the North American tribes." It is to-day the best work we have on the countries described, and its republication would be an acceptable service. Mr. Allen has paraded his name as the editor of this edition, when, in fact, the work was done by Mr. Nicholas Biddle from the material left by Captain Lewis, who in a fit of insanity committed suicide. See "N. A. Rev.," I. 96.

LEWIS. Travels to the Source of the Missouri River and across the American Continent to the Pacific Ocean. Performed by Order of the Government of the United States, in the Years 1804, 1805, and 1806. By Captains Lewis and Clarke. Published from the Official Report and Illustrated by a Map of the Route and other Maps. London: Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown. 1814. 4to, pp. xxiv, 663. 3 Maps. c. 40829

A reprint of the foregoing, omitting the appendix and the Life of Lewis. The preface is by Dr. Thomas Rees. See "M. Rev.," LXXVII. 225, 337.

LEWIS. Travels to the Source of the Missouri River [same Title as the preceding]. A New Edition. ... London: Longman ... 1815. 3 vols., 8vo, pp. xxvi, (2), 411; xii, 434; xii, 394. 6 Maps. + [Ibid.] 1817. 40830

This edition was edited by Thomas Rees. It is a reproduction, in larger type and on better paper, of the Philadelphia edition of 1814, omitting the "Observations on the Government of the Indians," by Captain Lewis, and the eight meteorological tables. Another edition was printed in Dublin with the same title with the addition:

LEWIS. Travels ... With the Life of Captain Lewis, by T. Jefferson, President of the United States of America. ... Dublin: J. Christie. 1817. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xxvii, (12), 588; (2), xii, 643.

New Edition, with Notes, Revised, Corrected, and Illustrated ... . To which is added a Complete Dictionary of the Indian Tongue. Dayton, O.: B. F. Ells. 1840. 12mo, pp. 240. + Dayton: Ells, Claflin & Co. 1851. 12mo, pp. 240. 40832

This is the "Message" over again with verbal variations; got up to sell. The following is an abridgment:

LEWIS. Account of the Expedition of Captains Lewis and Clark across the Rocky Mountains, and to the Mouth of the Columbia River. [London.] 1842. 2 vols., 12mo. 40834

This is doubtless Harper's Edition, with a new title to suit the English demand growing out of the Oregonian fever in 1842. For other accounts of this expedition, see Fisher (William), and Gass (Patrick). The following are translations:

So rare that we can only refer to two copies in America, one in the Lenox Library, and one belonging to Samuel L. M. Barlow. These laws were issued by Charles v., and consist of two ordinances limiting the partitions of lands among the conquistadores, which were subsequently omitted. The British Museum (Grenville Library), has a copy printed on vellum which is unique. Ternaux No. 49, and Rich, No. 13, convey an erroneous impression as to their nature, which [Harrisse's] "Bib. Am. Vet.," No. 247, corrects; he says, "They were issued especially for the better treatment of the Indians, and, we believe, for limiting the partitions of lands among the conquerors. Leon Pinelo states, on the authority of Juan de Grivalja, that these laws 'tan odiosas,' were prompted by the publication of the manuscript tract 'Dies i seis remedios contra la peste que destruye las Indias.' They were issued at Barcelona, November 20th, 1542, completed at Valladolid, July 4th, 1543, and ordered to be printed, and enforced immediately throughout the Indies." So long ago as 1830 Mr. Rich priced the work at £21. For further particulars consult Rich's "Bib. Am.," II. 355, Brunet's "Manuel du Libraire," III., col. 1042, and especially [Harrisse's] "Bib. Am. Vet.," No. 247, for an elaborate article on the "Leyes" in general. A second edition was published with the following title, according to Pinelo-Barcia, Vol. II., col. 828:

Leyes, y Ordenanças nuevas, hechas por su Magestad, para la Governacion de las Indias, i buen tratamiento de los Indios, que se han de guardar en el Consejo, e i por todos los otros Governadores, Jueces, i Personas Particulares de ella. En Madrid, en Casa de Francisco Sanchez. 1585. Folio. 40903

A third, and perhaps the last edition, has the following title:

Leyes y | Ordenanças Nueva- | mente hechas por su Mages- | tad, para la gouernaciõ de las Indias, y buen tratamiento | y conservacion de los Indios: que se han de guardar en | el Consejo y Audiencias Reales que en ellas | residen: y por todos los otros Gouerna- | dores, juezes y personas parti- | culares dellas. | En Valladolid. | En la Imprenta del Licenciado Varez de Castro. | Año de M. LEYPOLDT (Frederick). The American Catalogue of Books for 1869. ... New York: Leypoldt & Holt. 1870. 8vo, pp. xxi, 5–103. B. 40906

Mr. Leypoldt was formerly a bookseller; he possesses unusual intelligence, and is now engaged in making a catalogue of all books published in America, in print at this time, which promises to be a work of great value to the collector of American books, as distinguished from those which relate to America. He is also the editor of "The Publishers' Weekly."

This is a defense of A. van Liebergen in respect of the incredible severities exercised towards him by the Superior Council of Brazil, upon charges of treason. The dedicatory preface is addressed to the Prince of Orange, who had then just succeeded in wresting the Brazilian provinces from the Portuguese. It is one of the most important books on the interior administration of the Dutch in Brazil, and is very scarce.

[LIGHTFOOTE (William).] The Complaint of England, Wherein it is clearely prooued that the practises of Traitrous Papists against the state of this Realme, and the person of her Maiestie, are in Diuinitie vnlawfull, odious in Nature, and ridiculous in pollicie. In the which they are reprooued in wilfull blindnes, in that they see not the filthines of the Romish gouernment; and conuinced of desperate madnesse; in that they feare not the mischiefe of Spanish inuasion; The former whereof is exemplified by the Popes practises both here in England, and abroad in other countries; the later by the Spaniards outrages, in his exertions raised upon Naples, and his tyrannies execvted in the Indies. Lastly the necessitie, equitie, and benefits of the late proceeding in justice are set downe; with a friendly warning to seditious Papists for their amendment; and an effectuall consolation to faithfull subiectes for their incouragement. ... Scene and allowd. London: Printed by Iohn Wolfe ... 1587. 4to, 34 l. C.

Lowndes gives the running title only, but does not refer to the sale of any copy; on sheets G and H is recorded the cruelty of the Spaniards at Cuba, Hispaniola, Mexico, etc.

This, of course, does not relate to America, but it exhibits the state of geographical knowledge just previous to Columbus' first voyage.

Extremely rare. Folio II contains an allusion to the recent discovery of the New World, and the verso of leaf 40 reads as follows: "De navigatione oceani maris.—sed res postulare videtur ut quo tempore navigatus fit oceanus, paucis exponam: ne quisquam novum aut inusitatum credat, quod Rex hispaniæ, ut ferunt, in dies ad exploranda nova littora naves mittat. Nam temporibus Trajani, ut Plinius refert ..."

LILIUS. Breve Descriptione del Mondo tradotta par M. Francesco Baldelli. Con l'additione de' nomi moderni. Vinegia: Gabriel Giolito de Ferrari. 1551. 8vo. 41068

"The object of this curious and learned geographical work, originally written just before the discovery of the new Continent, seems to have been to post up into one little book all the knowledge and all the ignorance respecting our globe that could be collected from the ancients, as well as mediæval writers, so as to start fair with the new light to be let in by Columbus. It is a sort of alphabetical dictionary of geography, with a good index. The works of Lilius are in Ortelius's famous list of geographical authorities published in 1570."—STEVENS.

The squabble between the Spaniards and the Peruvian Chamber of Commerce, although not of very wide interest, nevertheless involves the history of the foundation and administration of the Board of Trade for the Indies, and the bases of the fiscal settlement of the new territories. It also foreshadows the break between Spaniards and Creoles which led to the separation of the two countries.

[LIND (Jonathan).] An Answer to the Declaration of the American Congress. London: T. Cadell. MDCCLXXVI. 8vo, pp. (4), xvi, 137. 41280

On the title of a copy belonging to the Brown Library is the following manuscript note: "By Jn Lind, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq. This is the work in its original state. A considerable part of this was left out at the desire of the Ministers in the published copy. Ex dono autoris J'y Bentham." Mr. Bartlett made a comparison of this with the following "published copy," and verified the above statement.

[LIND.] An Answer to the Declaration of the American Congress. London: T. Cadell. M,DCC,LXXVI. 8vo, pp. 132. + The Second Edition. [Ibid.] + The Third Edition. [Ibid.] 8vo, pp. 117. + The Fourth Edition. [Ibid.] 8vo, pp. 132. + The Fifth Edition. [Ibid.] 8vo, pp. 132. B., H. 41281

In these later editions the outline of a counter declaration is omitted. With regard to the theory of government set forth in the preamble to the "Declaration," the writer adds, "a theory, as absurd and visionary, as the system of conduct in defence of which it is established, is nefarious;" indeed each article of the Declaration of Independence is carefully examined and every assertion disputed. See "M. Rev.," LV. 345. The following is a translation:

This title is introduced for the purpose of explaining the following:

L[INGARD]. A | Letter of Advice | To A Young | Gentleman | Leaving the | University | Concerning his Behaviour | and Conversation in the | World. | By R. L. | Printed and sold by VV. Bradford, | Printer to his Majesty, King | William, at the Bible in | New York. 1696. | 16mo, pp. (6), 45. 41327

The earliest book known to have been printed in the Colony of New York; the Laws of the Colony excepted. E. B. Corwin's copy sold for $12 in 1856; it was bought for Mr. Menzies, and sold in 1876 for $240. It is now in the possession of Mr. S. W. Phoenix of New York. Mr. Wallace, in his address on Bradford, and Thomas, in his "History of Printing," Second Edition, indulge in some curious speculations respecting the authorship, which are here dissipated. It is difficult to understand Bradford's motives in merely putting R. L. on the title-page when the book from which it was reprinted has the author's name in full on the title-page.

For a full account and collation of this very rare first edition, see Tiele's "Mémoire Bibliographique sur les Journaux des Navigateurs," pp. 83–91, also J. R. Bartlett's Catalogue of J. C. Brown's Library. Part II. contains a description of the navigation of the Portuguese in India, comprising the coast of Brasil and the harbors. Part III. contains a description of the Cabo St. Augustin in Brazil, the peculiarities of the ocean, its islands, etc. With a description of West India at large. There are copies on large paper. "The thirty-six plates and six maps illustrating the book, are the same for the six editions in Dutch, the second and third French editions and (with exception of one map), for the Latin edition. The Latin and German translations, given by De Bry in the 'Petits Voyages,' II., III., IV., are crowded with faults, misunderstandings, quite fantastical translations, omissions, etc.; the plates are no less bad and often entirely drawn from imagination, etc., as is fully demonstrated by Camus' 'Mémoire,' p. 189, and Tiele's 'Mémoire,' p. 90."—MULLER. Another edition of Part III. is described below:

This last Dutch edition is scarcer than the first. The map of the two hemispheres, by Petrus Plancius, executed in 1594, and Langren's map of America, executed at the same time, are two remarkable efforts at cartography.

This first Latin edition contains the "Itinerarium," slightly abridged in some portions, followed by a translation of pp. 1–16 of the third Dutch part, "Descriptio Guineae." The description of America, from the third Dutch part, pp. 17–25, is omitted. Pages 17–25 consist of a short narrative of three Dutch expeditions to the North, from the work of De Veer. Pages 26–36 contain a translation of pp. 124–134 of the Dutch bearings and distances; pp. 37–45 an abridgment of pp. 135–147 of the same work. The map illustrating the voyage of Barentsz is important, and exhibits the regions adjacent to the North Pole. "Très-rare et recherchée. On la réunit à la collection des frères De Bry, attendu que leurs héritiers en ont fait faire une traduction moins exacte, qu'ils ont insérée dans la 2e partie des 'Petits Voyages.'"—LECLERC. See also Camus' "Mémoire," p. 189, Brunet, and Trömel.

"This inestimable book, a treasure of all the learning respecting the East and West-Indies and the navigation thither, at the end of the sixteenth century, has been in the highest esteem for nearly a century, and was given to each ship sailing to India, as a log-book. Hence the many editions, which is also the cause why fine copies, especially with all the plates and maps, are so very rare. A large part of the book is occupied by translations of original Spanish and Portuguese documents on geography, ethnography, statistics, navigation, etc., and in these respects it is of the highest importance and authority. The description of America occupies pages 17 to 82 of the third part" —F. MULLER. See also Trömel.

LIVINGSTON. A Letter to the Right Reverend Father in God, John, Lord Bishop of Landaff [sic]; Occasioned by Some Passages in his Lordship's Sermon, on the 20th of February, 1767, in which the American Colonies are loaded with great and undeserved Reproach. B. + New-York Printed. London: Reprinted for J. Buckland. MDCCLXVIII. 8vo, pp. 31. 41642

The sermon alluded to was delivered at the anniversary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. The writer questions "whether there be a pamphlet in the nation, that, in proportion to the length of the sermon, contains so great a number of aberrations from the truth." Very severe, but courteous. See "M. Rev.," XXXIV. 87. The following is a Dutch translation:

LIVINGSTON. Brief aan den Lord Bisschop van Landaff. ... Uit het Engelsch vertaald. Utrecht. 1774. 8vo, pp. (4), 34.

It elicited the following reply:

A Vindication of The Bishop of Landaff's Sermon from the Gross Misrepresentations, and Abusive Reflections, contained In Mr. William Livingston's Letter to his Lordship: With Some Additional Observations On certain Passages in Dr. Chauncey's Remarks, &c. A very rare pamphlet, unknown to Rich, and apparently so to Sedgwick. The following is a translation:

C., P. 41649

[LIVINGSTON. Same Title.] To which are added, Colonel Washington's Journal of his Expedition to the Ohio, in 1754, and several Letters and other Papers of Consequence, found in the Cabinet of Major General Braddock, after his Defeat near Fort Du-Quesne; and since published by the French Court. None of these Papers are contained in the English Edition. Dublin: P. Wilson and J. Exshaw. M.DCC.LVII. 8vo, pp. 276.

"The author's chief design is to vindicate Governor Shirley, and asperse the characters of those who opposed his measures."—Monthly Review, XVI. 524. The latter part of this work is a translation of the "Mémoire contenant le Précis des Faits," printed by the French Court, charging Washington with the assassination of Jumonville. The authorship has also been attributed to William Smith, of New York, who perhaps aided the author as did also J. M. Scott. The facts were supplied by W. Alexander, afterwards the soi disant Earl of Stirling, brother-in-law of Livingston, and secretary to Gen. Shirley. See Sedgwick's "Life of Livingston," p. 114. It was reprinted in the "Massachusetts Historical Collections," Vol. VII.

See Sedgwick's "Life of Livingston," p. 149. Sedgwick, p. 179, "cites an Address to the People of Ireland, July 28," perhaps the same as our No. 403. Mr. Livingston was also the projector and principal writer in the "Independent Reflector," see our No. 34452, and add to the note: A preface was put forth with the imprint New-York: Printed until tyrannically suppressed. M,DCC,LIII. Folio, pp. 31. This preface gives the proposed contents of many more numbers which were never published. See John Adams' Works, Vol. II. 349. "The Watch-Tower" was also edited by Mr. Livingston.

Very severe on flesh-colored stockings and diabolical lace; as Stevens remarks it is "A funny book, very, and one well fortified with texts and authorities. This curious Pastoral Charge exhibits to us the queer spectacle of a presumably jolly old Mexican Archbishop running full tilt at the prevailing fashions of the fairer portions of his flock. It seems that the Mexican ladies had adopted the new French fashion of allowing the wicked world to see too much of them by displaying their arms and charms without any covering save that of innocence, whereupon the wrath of the worthy Father is kindled."—Bibl. Geographica, No. 3090.

[LIZARDI (Joaquin Fernandez de).] Leben des Periquillo Sarmiento. Quarta edicion. Mejico? 1842. 4 vols., 8vo. 60 Illustrations. 41663

The author of these volumes has been styled the Cervantes of Mexico by some, while Dr. Beristain, in his "Biblioteca Hispano Americana Septentrional," calls him the American Quevedo. He has written much, and on the whole ranks perhaps as the best Mexican writer. The present work is one illustrative of Mexican character, satirizing the faults of the people, but always true to liberal and republican principles. Sixty lithographs illustrating the work are spirited and amusing. Lizardi was born in Mexico in 1771, and during the period of the Revolution wrote very much, chiefly as the "Pensador Mexicano."

L[IZARDI]. Pensador Mexicano, por D. J. F. de L. Mexico. 1813. 4to. 41666

A rare and curious political journal, composed of bizarre essays, which may not have lived beyond the year. It was published weekly, but the supplements, although as extensive as the chief work, were very irregular. The first number is called "Continuacion del Pensador," the others are simply "Pensador."

This author treats upon several heterogenous subjects, and incidentally endeavors to defend the humanity of the Spaniards against the good bishop Las Casas. At page 238 he says that rare and uncommon books are more abundant in America, particularly in Lima, than in Europe, and that Ciceros of 1465–6–7, etc., are so frequently met with that the finding of copies is not considered as anything so uncommon, which is an absurd statement.

Contains the "Fundamental Constitutions of Carolina," the first instrument ever digested and written out, for the entire and perfect government of a political body. The plan was laid out by Lord Shaftesbury; but the labor of its composition was accomplished by Mr. Locke. Though impracticable in many particulars, it undoubtedly suggested to the colonists many hints which were beneficial in their civil and political organization.

A very rare tract. The author sailed with Captain Candish, or Cavendish, in his voyage around the world. He sailed on a second expedition from Plymouth, in 1591, the particulars of which are given by Southey, in his "History of Brazil." While at Santos he became acquainted with a friar in the Jesuit College where he lodged, with "many captains and young gentlemen." "Here it was," says Lodge, "my chance in the library of the Jesuits in Santos to find this historie in the Spanish tong," of which he professes to give a translation. In his dedication to Lady Russell the author says: "Touching the place where I wrote this, it was in those straits christned by Magelan; in which place to the southward many wonderous isles, many strange fishes, many monstrous Patagones withdrew my senses; briefly, many bitter and extreme frosts at midsummer continually clothe and clad the discomfortable mountaines; so that as there was great wonder in the place wherein I writ this, so likewise might it be marvelled, that in such scantie fare, such causes of fear, so mightie discouragements, and so many crosses, I should deserve or eternize any thing." Very rare. This conquest of the town of Olinda, in the Capitania of Pernambuco, by the courageous H. C. Lonck and Diderick van Waerdenburgh, in behalf of the West India Company, contains also the text of the treaty of surrender of the forts of S. Jorge and S. Francisco (in Spanish and Dutch). This text is of importance, as it rectifies, in some degree, the opinions of some historians on that subject. See Netscher's "Les Hollandais au Brésil," p. 48, note. Translated into German as:

LORENZANA (F. A.) Cartas Pastorales, y edictos del Illmo. Señor D. Francisco Antonio Lorenzana y Buitron, Arzobispo de Mexico. En Mexico, en la Imprenta del Superior Gobierno del Br. D. Joseph Antonio de Hogal, Año de MDCCLXX. Folio, pp. (26), 229. 42062

"Among other things, this volume contains a most minute account of the portrait of the Virgin of Guadaloupe, which appeared miraculously on the Filma or blanket of Juan Diego, a converted Mexican, in the year 1531; and which was solemnly declared by a commission of painters and others, in 1751, not to have been painted by the hand of man. The good Archbishop comes to the conclusion that it must have been painted by millions of angels."—STEVENS.

LORENZANA. Concilios Provinciales Primero, y Segundo, celebrados en la muy Noble, y muy leal Ciudad de México, Presidiendo en Illmo y Rmo Señor D. Fr. Alonso de Montufar, En los años de 1555, y 1566. Dalos a luz El Illmo Sr D. Francisco Antonio Lorenzana, Arzobispo de esta Santa Metropolitana Iglesia. Con las Licencias Necesarias En México, en la Im- prenta de el Superior Gobierno, de el Br. D. Joseph Antonio de Hogal, en la Calle de Tiburcio, Año de 1769. Folio, pp. (10), 396, (12).

The first Council was originally printed in 1556, at Mexico, by Juan Pablos Lombardo. Besides the two Councils, the first volume contains an account of the Prelates of the Mexican Church. The second volume, containing the third Mexican Council, was printed in the following year, with the title:

LORENZANA. Concilium Mexicanum provinciale III. Celebratum Mexici, anno MDLXXXV. Præside D. D. Petro Moya, et Contreras Archiepiscopo ejusdem urbis. Confirmatum Romæ die XXVII. Octobris anno MDLXXXIX. Postea Jussu Regio editum Mexici anno MDCXXII. Sumptibus D. D. Joannis Perez de la Serna Archiepiscopi. Demum typis mandatum cura, & expensis D. D. Francisci Antonij a Lorenzana Archipræsulis. Mexici Anno MDCCLXX. Superiorum Permissu. Ex Typographia Bac Josephi Antonij de Hogal. Folio, pp. (12), 328, (4). 42064

This collection of Mexican Councils is of importance as containing those of 1555 and 1565, nowhere else to be found. That of 1585 is given in the great collections, but not from this edition. Fleury notices the last, and Rohrbacher only that of 1524. The Pastoral Letters, etc., of Lorenzana do not exist elsewhere. There are also appended to the Councils notices of the series of Mexican bishops.

Salva remarks "These two parts are rarely found together." "I have examined several copies of this work, but have found in one only an appendix of 53 pages, which contains copies of some original documents, giving an account of the first Apostolical Junta held in Mexico, in the year 1537, and of another in 1539, by the Bishops Zumarraga, Zarate, and Quiroga."—RICH, p. 183.

LORENZANA. Joseph Antonio de Hogal* ... 1770. Folio, pp. xvi, 400, (18). Map, 36 Plates.

An important and highly esteemed work, containing the celebrated letters of Cortez to the Emperor Charles V. This edition is illustrated with copious notes and documents, together with facsimiles of the Mexican mode of representing the tributes paid by the different towns in Mexico. These pictures, more complete and colored like the originals, are included in Lord Kingsborough's "Antiquities of Mexico." See Cortes (H.), Vol. IV., where indeed this work should have appeared.

Lorenzana died Cardinal-Archbishop of Toledo. Both as Archbishop of Mexico and of Toledo he displayed the same princely patronage of ecclesiastical literature as his predecessor in the latter see, Cardinal Ximenes. At his private expense, and for the purposes of distribution, not for sale, he edited and printed the above "Concilios," the "Mozarabic Missal," the "Opera Patrum Toletanorum," the "Opera S. Martini Legionensis," etc., all of which are now of uncommon occurrence. The labors of this mission lay chiefly among the Delawares, the Nautikokes, the Shawanese, and other tribes in Pennsylvania and New York, upon which it is the best authority, both as to tradition and facts, having been drawn up from the accounts furnished by Gottlieb Spangenberg and David Zeisberger, missionaries among the Indian tribes during forty years. Among the subjects narrated is that of the massacre of Gnadenhutten and Salem. The translator has omitted some matter relative to former enemies of the mission.

First issued in thirty numbers. It contains many details and anecdotes which are not to be found in any other work; indeed, the great variety and numerous items of information contained in these volumes, make the work a cyclopædia of the American Revolution. The popularity of the work has made for it a great sale, consequently the earliest edition is much to be preferred on account of the clearness of the woodcuts. The second issue is New York: Harper & Brothers. 1855. 2 vols., imp. 8vo, pp. 783; 772. + [Ibid.] 1860. It is noticeable that the collation differs; the contents are the same. The change was made to insure a uniformity in the thickness of the volumes. It has been frequently reprinted with varying dates.

LOUDON (A.) A | Selection, | of Some | of the most interesting | Narratives, | of | Outrages, | Committed | by the | Indians, | in | Their Wars, | with the White People. | Also, | An Account of their Manners, Customs, Traditions, | Religious Sentiments, Mode of Warfare, Military | Tactics, Discipline and Encampments, Treatment | of Prisoners, &c., which are better Explained, and | more Minutely Related, than has been heretofore | done, by any other Author on that subject. Many | of the Articles have never before appeared in print. | The whole Compiled from the best Authorities, | By Archibald Loudon. | Vol. I. | Carlisle: | From the Press of A. Loudon | [Whitehall, Pa.] 1808. | Sm. 12mo, pp. 12, 5–355. + Vol. II. | Carlisle, | From the Press of Archibald | Loudon, | 1811. | Sm. 12mo, pp. iv, 13–369. c. 42165

In Vol. II. signature F is erroneously signed E, pp. 162–69 are incorrectly numbered 134, etc., but the mistake is corrected at page 169; page 217 is also wrongly numbered 215, and the error is continued up to the end of the volume, which should be, in fact, page 371. It is a work of extreme rarity, and rarely found complete, a circumstance partly owing to the time which elapsed between the publication of the first and second volumes. T. W. Field, in his "Essay," devotes a verbose and unnecessary note to an explanation of the collation, which is not at all an infrequent arrangement—the preliminary leaves not being printed until the text was completed. A perfect set is worth over $100, as not more than half a dozen are known to exist. It contains some narratives not elsewhere to be found, and is one of the most desirable works of its class.

This book of the Ocean or Sea-Cocks relates the wonderful voyages and travels which the rightly and justly called Ocean or Sea-Cocks of the Kings of Spain, Portugal, England, and France have made within the hundred years preceding its date. It was compiled by Conrad Löw, and is so very rare that it seems to have been unknown until Brunet described it in his "Manuel." Although it contains nothing but extracts and translations, it will always occupy an elevated rank among the precious books which tell us of the great geographical discoveries of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. It includes the voyages of Columbus, Ponce de Leon, Hernando Cortez, Fernando de Magellan, Juan Sebastian del Cano, Garcia Jofre de Loaysa, Saavedra, Cedron, Vasco de Gama, Pedro Alvarez Cabral, Juan de Nova, Gaspar Cortereal, Sebastien Cabot, Martin Frobisher, Francis Drake, Richard Grenville, Thomas Cavendish, Walter Raleigh, John Hawkins, Verrazano, and Jacques Cartier. The maps are frequently wanting. Brunet, Grässe, and Trömel give the title at length, the first calling it, "Collection importante, et dont les exemplaires sont rares," and the last describing it fully. Trübner prices it at £10, 10s.

LOZA. Vita Condatta dal servo di Dio Gregorio Lopez nello nuova Spagna composta dal Fran. Losa gia curato delle Chiesa Cattedrale del Messico, e poi suo Campagno. Roma. 1740. 4to. Folding Plate. 42587

The only Italian version which has come under my notice. Gregory Lopez, one of the most successful of the many early missionaries among the Indians of New Spain, was born at Madrid, July 4th, 1542, and is said to have been an illegitimate son of Charles v. or Philip II. At the age of twenty he landed at Vera Cruz, and soon after pitched his tent among the Chichimecos Indians. He died on the 20th of July, 1596, at Santa Fé, six miles from Mexico, where Father Losa wrote his life in 1613.

[LOZANO (Pedro).] Individual y Verdadera Relacion de la extrema ruyna que padeciò la Ciudad de los Reyes Lima, Capitàl del Reyno del Perù, con el horrible Temblòr de tierra acaecido en ella la noche del dia 28. de Octubre de 1746, y de la totàl asolacion del presidio y puerto del Callao, por la violenta irrupcion del Mar, que ocasionò en aquella Bahia. Lima, en la Imprenta que estaba en la Calle de los Mercadores. Año de 1746. 4to, 13 l.

The original edition is a piece of extreme rarity. It relates one of the most dreadful convulsions of nature on record. The Port of Callao was inundated by the sea, and the entire population perished; Lima was almost destroyed. See Leclerc, No. 757.

[LOZANO.] Individual y Verdadera Relacion [etc., as in No. 42590]. Mexico: Joseph Bernardo de Hogal. 1747. 4to, 10 l.

Almost as rare as the Lima edition. The following is an English translation with additions:

1692, and of others in different parts of the World. Accurately describing the dreadful Devastations that have been made by these dreadful convulsions of the Earth; whereby Mountains have been thrown down, or remov'd to great distances; Cities, with all their Inhabitants swallow'd up in a moment; whole flocks and herds, with their keepers, ingulp'd in the tremendous chasms and openings of valleys; and large forests sunk, and forever buried in an instant. Concerning the author, see Funes' "Historia Civil del Paraguay," where he is commended as an exact and sincere writer. The translator was Henry Johnson, but the "Gentleman's Magazine", for 1748, says it is a pretended translation from the Spanish. The following are abridgments:

This letter is dated Nov. 1, 1746, at Cordova, in the province of Tucuman, and contains an account of the state of the missions of the Jesuits in Paraguay, at that time. It has no title-page, and was evidently printed for private distribution only.

LOZANO. Descripcion chorographica del terreno, rios, arboles, y animales de las dilatadissimas Provincias del Gran Chaco, Gualamba. The author was a missionary in Paraguay. The present work, which is almost unknown, contains a history of the acts of the Jesuits in Paraguay, and appears to be but the beginning of a more extensive work contemplated by the author.

Forms No. 1 of Trübner's "Bibliotheca Glottica." It is based on the American portion of Vater's "Litt. der Gram., Lexica und Wörtersammlungen aller Sprachen der Erde," Berlin, 1847, 8vo. The amiable and learned author died while the work was passing through the press. It not only describes all known printed books which came under the author's notice, but recounts the unpublished works or manuscripts which relate to the subject. It describes the literature of over five hundred languages and dialects spoken by about nine hundred tribes. As a monument of linguistic industry it is scarcely excelled. Much credit is due Dr. Nicolas Trübner of London, and Professor Turner of Washington, under whose auspices it was completed.

"This stupid play is built on the German mercenary soldiers in America (probably the Hessians), who were sold to the English by their Princes, and sent off like so many sheep to the slaughter, but who escaped that fate by surrendering with Burgoyne and his Army. Some lived to die in America, but some returned home to be laughed at." —STEVENS.

This translation of Luther's Catechism into the language of the Virginia (or more correctly the Delaware) Indians was made by Thomas Campanius. "Leclerc, No. 918, erroneously calls Thomas Campanius the author; he describes his copy as 'Exempl. au chiffre et aux armes de Charles XI,' but in Acrelius' work on New-Sweden, p. 423, we find it noticed, that all the copies were bound in this manner. Acrelius also remarks that the book was printed at the royal expense expressly for the conversion of the American heathen, and that five hundred copies were sent to New-Sweden."—MULLER.

"This work consists of four letters addressed to John Adams, with a preface by the translator, who does not seem to consider himself bound to adopt the opinions of his author. These, in fact, are not so liberal as was to be expected from a character so distinguished in the literary world. His work contains some observations which are the result of good sense and a great knowledge of mankind, yet amid these there are many things which betray the author's country and religious persuasion."—Monthly Review, LXXI. 371; LXXII. 146.
